PEER MENTOR, CULTURAL LEARNING COMMUNITIES (APASA)

JOB DESCRIPTION

THRIVE CENTER
The mission of the Thrive Center is to advance a community where students successfully navigate, excel and graduate from the University of Arizona prepared for life after college. Our values focus on providing students with a diverse, accessible, inclusive, and quality experience by:

- Centering the student experience through support and guidance
- Creating and modeling best practices
- Building community connections
- Collaborating across campus
- Cultivating lifelong learning practices

POSITION SUMMARY

Program: Cultural Learning Communities

Program Summary: The Cultural Learning Communities (CLCs) merge culture, identity, and academic support through classes, workshops, and peer mentoring. First year students seeking a culturally enriching experience who identify as African American/Black, Asian/Pacific Islander, Hispanic/Latinx/Chicano, Native American/American Indian, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans or Queer/Questioning, or a student with disabilities are able to participate in one of our seven Cultural Learning Communities. This position would work primarily with students who affiliate with Asian Pacific American Student Affairs (APASA) and its programs.

Job Title: Peer Mentor, Cultural Learning Communities (APASA)

Hourly Rate: $13.00 per hour

Job Summary: CLC Peer Mentor will be part of a team that works to support incoming students choosing to integrate their culture into their experience at Arizona. This is done through one-on-one meetings and workshops/course meetings, focusing on four areas: (1) campus and community engagement, (2) personal growth, (3) a diverse experience, and (4) academic excellence, by working closely with the cultural centers on campus. The APASA peer mentors will directly support incoming students participating in the APIDA Scholars living/learning community. This position will also be independently facilitating one discussion session of HED 197A.

- Attending all training, staff meetings, and retreats is required; most meetings are 60 minutes.

PROGRAMS & EVENTS EXPECTATIONS

The Thrive Center houses many programs and services, which may or may not correspond with your direct role in the office. One of our expectations of all our employees is to embrace an “all hands on deck” mentality. With that in mind, you may be asked to work a program in the evening or weekend. This request will be negotiated with your direct supervisor with the following in mind:

- Student staff will be paid for any program they work outside of their role in the office.
- Students are expected to work at least 12 hours per week but cannot exceed 25 hours per week.
- Exceptions will be made for academics (classes or instructor led review/study sessions).
- A calendar of events will be provided during the training informing staff of work commitments throughout the academic year.
